

Can International students take summer school?

Lindsay Marshall - 2020-03-20 - Summer School

Yes. To take summer school, International students must have a study permit that is valid until August 31. Even though summer school ends July 31, the end of August date will encompass the diploma exam writing period. International students are required to pay International tuition fees.